

Dekker Centre for the Performing Arts

Policy Type: Programming

Subject: Community Standards

Date Adopted: January 17, 2013

Monitoring: Ongoing by Board and General Manager

- The Dekker Centre will not present, or allow to be presented any show, event or activity, or part thereof that, in the Dekker Centre's opinion, offends generally accepted community standards of the citizens of the Battlefords.
- The Dekker Centre may request a description of the contents of a proposed performance from any proposed user or renter.
- Decisions regarding the refusal of performance rights or access based on community standards shall be made by the Dekker Centre Board.
- Where appropriate, warnings related to language and visual content of a performance shall be prepared by the General Manager and shall be included in all promotional material and advertising of a performance.
- The Dekker Centre has the right to refuse any proposed performance that it finds unsuitable or not in keeping with the character of the Facility as a first-class theatre.
